MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION;
EXHIBITS A - D

Hawaii Biotech, Inc. ("HBI"), the Debtor, submits this Memorandum in Support of its Motion to Sell Assets of the Estate Free and Clear of Liens, Claims and Encumbrances, Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(b) and (f).

219821v1\09-234\JG

I. BACKGROUND

On December 11, 2009, HBI filed its petition for relief. At the time of the filing, the Debtor was engaged in the development and clinical trials of West Niles and Dengue Fever vaccines as well as research and pre-clinical development of other sub-unit vaccines. On December 31, 2009, the Court entered its Final Order Re: Debtor's Motion to Borrow Funds as Secured and Superpriority Administrative Expense Pursuant to § 364(c) and (d) of the Bankruptcy Code (Docket No. 88) (the "DIP Order"). The DIP Order authorized the Debtor-in-Possession lenders (the "Lender Group") to advance up to $2,025,000.00 secured by a post-petition lien on the Debtor's assets up to the amount actually advanced to support the Debtor-in-Possession's operations. As of May 31, 2010, the Lender Group had advanced $1,370,312.00 leaving approximately $654,688 of available credit under the $2,025,000.00 facility.

The latest Monthly Operating Report for the month of April 2010, shows the Debtor has $174,755.47 from the amounts advanced and the revenues generated from operations, although estimates as of June 1, 2010, indicate the Debtor is holding $200,000.00 in cash.

At the current rate of expenditures, the Debtor will not have sufficient funds to operate past July 31, 2010. A sale of the Debtor's assets is necessary and imperative to maintain and preserve its West Nile virus and Dengue vaccine clinical trials and the value of its intellectual property (“IP”). These trials are supported by the executory contracts assumed by the Debtor. The Debtor has spent millions of dollars to develop and test these vaccines, and has gotten to the clinical phase where it has reach a stage where the vaccines are being tested on human subjects in trial at St. Louis University. In its ongoing efforts to conserve cash, the Debtor has recently reduced its operations by implementing a three day work week for all employees.

It is in the public interest, and in the interest of creditors, that the IP and the administration of the clinical trials be transferred to a party, with sufficient expertise and financial resources to continue with the trials and the development of the vaccines. The Debtor has decided that the only way to preserve the value of these assets and continue the research and development of its vaccine candidates is to sell the operations as a “going concern” in an auction to the highest bidder, possessing the qualifications to continue the scientific operations and trials and produce the vaccines.

II. ARGUMENT

A. A Debtor May Sell All or Almost All of its Assets in a Sale Prior to Confirmation of the Plan.

Section 363(b) allows a chapter 11 debtor to sell or almost all of its assets prior to the confirmation of a plan of reorganization.

(Bankr.C.D.Cal. 1991), the court set out the standards for a sale of the business outside of the ordinary course of business and prior to the confirmation of a plan of reorganization;

Under what circumstances should the debtor in possession be allowed to sale of all or virtually all of the estates property prior to the confirmation of debtor's plan? This was the fundamental question raised and discussed in In re Lionel Corporation, 722 F.2d 1063 (2nd Cir.1983). Lionel, stands for the notion, at least, that § 363(b) does not grant the bankruptcy judge carte blanche to approve any sale proposed by the debtor, but requires that “reasons be given for whatever determination is made”, i.e. “[There must be some articulated business justification ... before the bankruptcy judge may order such disposition.” The “notice and hearing” safeguard of § 363(b) would be meaningless if the court were not required to articulate some reasons why the sale is in the best interest of the estate.

Of course, the court and the creditors can only make an “articulated business” judgment regarding the prudence of the sale where there has been a full disclosure of the details of the proposed sale by its proponent. “The key to the reorganization Chapter ... is disclosure....” The essential purpose served by disclosure is to ensure that parties in interest are not left entirely at the mercy of the debtor and others having special influence over debtor.

In the case at bar, the Debtor must sell its assets before July 31, 2010, when the Debtor expects to run out of operating funds to pay its rent, its employees and the parties performing its clinical trials. The Debtor has moved to extend the time to assume or reject the lease at 99-193 Aiea Heights Drive, Suite 200, Honolulu, Hawaii, to July 9, 2010, and which lease expires on August 31, 2010. The Debtor is current on its post-petition rent through April 2010, but is having trouble meeting its current lease rent. The Debtor may be able to pay some portion of the current rent, per the present lease through July 31, 2010. The Debtor's additional problems are set forth in the Declaration of Elliot Parks, chief executive officer of the Debtor, who describes the Debtor's financial problems, its reduction of hours for its employees and the payment of the clinical trials.

In this case, the Debtor can sell its assets pursuant to § 363(b) because it meets the following conditions and standard as described in In re Wilde Horse Enterprises,

In approving any sale outside the ordinary course of business, the court must not only articulate a sufficient business reason for the sale, it must further find it is in the best interest of the estate, i.e. it is fair and reasonable, that it has been given adequate marketing, that it has been negotiated and proposed in good faith, that the purchaser is proceeding in good faith, and that it is an "arms-length" transaction. Matter of Phoenix Steel Corp., 82 B.R. 334, 335-36 (Bankr.Del.1987); In re Alpha Industries, Inc., 84 B.R. 703,705-06 (Bankr.Mont.1988); In re Alves, 52 B.R. 353 (Bankr.R.1.1985); In re Delaware & Hudson Railway Co., 124 B.R. 169, 176-77 (D.Del.1991); In re Planned Systems, Inc., 82 B.R. 919, 923 (Bankr.S.D.Ohio 1988). It is the proponent's duty to produce evidence probative of these issues. Finally, the court must determine that the debtor in possession has given all interested parties adequate and reasonable notice regarding the sale. In re Delaware & Hudson Railway Co., 124 B.R. at 176.

This Court will schedule a hearing during the week of July 16, 2010, and will have an opportunity to review the process of sale, including the advertising and marketing of the Debtor, the bidding procedures and the actual sales price, including any credit bid as allowed by the bidding procedures.

B. The Sales Must be Free and Clear of All Liens and Encumbrances.

The Debtor proposes to sell the assets of the Estate free and clear of all liens, claims and encumbrances, pursuant to § 363(f).

In January 2010, the Debtor, as per the court's Order, satisfied the pre-petition secured indebtedness in full and there remains no pre-petition liens or encumbrances on the Debtor's assets.

On December 31, 2009, this Court entered its Order granting a post-petition security interest to the Lender Group in an amount up to $2,025,000.00. The Lender Group has advanced $1,370,312.00 as of May 31, 2010, and the Debtor believes it will need additional funds to keep operations going through the proposed sale date, and has requested additional advances from the Lender Group.

In In re PW LLC, 391 B.R. 25 (9th Cir. BAP 2008) ("Clear Channel"), the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel held that a debtor can sell property free and clear if one or more of the provisions of § 363(f)(1) to (5) is satisfied. In this case, the post-petition secured creditor, the Lender Group, has consented to the sale of the property, free and clear of their post-petition liens and security interest, which liens and encumbrances will be transferred to the sales proceeds, in the same validity, priority and extent that the post-petition Lender Group had as per the Order of December 31, 2009.

The Lender Group's consent to the sale of the Debtor's assets satisfies § 363(f)(2) and allows the Debtor to sell the assets, including the executory contracts previously assumed by this Court's Orders.

C. The Sale Should be Made Subject to the Credit Bid of the Lender Group.

Section 363(k) allows a secured creditor, pre or post-petition to credit bid the full amount of their claim. See In re Monarch Beach Ventures Ltd., 166 B.R. 428 (C.D.Cal. 1993) and In re California Hancock Inc., 88 B.R. 226 (9th Cir. BAP 1988). In the case at bar, the Debtor proposes to allow the post-petition Lender Group, through its appointed agent, as per the Order of December 31, 2009, to credit bid up to the full amount of their claim, including all amounts advanced pursuant to the Order of December 31, 2009, up to the amount of $2,025,000.00, or the amount that is advanced to the Debtor on the auction date. The amount of the maximum credit bid of the Lender Group will be disclosed at the time of the auction, since the Debtor may continue to require additional funds up to the auction date.

The Lender Group will be deemed the “Stalking Horse” bidder with its bid of $1,445,312, the current principal amount outstanding under the DIP Loan, plus the cash amounts as set forth in the Asset Purchase Agreement. The Lender Group, as the Stalking Horse “bidder,” will be entitled to an expense reimbursement as per the Asset Purchase Agreement in the event it is not the successful bidder at the auction.

D. The Auction Sale Qualifies for § 363(m) Designation.

Section 363(m) provides protection for the purchaser of the Debtor’s assets from a later appeal unwinding the sale. In this case, the certainty of the sale for the ongoing clinical trials is essential. The sale qualifies for § 363(m), as per the Ninth Circuit Bankruptcy Appellate Panel standards set out in In re PW, LLC, 391 B.R. at 35-37. See also In re Qintex Entertainment, Inc., 950 F.2d 1492, 1497-1498 (9th Cir. 1991) (arms-length requirement and not in violation of any good faith requirement of the Code).

E. The Auction Procedures.

The Debtor proposes to auction off all of the assets of the Estate to the highest “qualified” bidder. Because time is of the essence, insofar as the Debtor is running short on its post-petition funding, the Debtor proposes to conduct an in-court auction the week of July 16, 2010. See Exhibit A-D.

The sale will proceed on the following conditions and qualifications.

1. Qualification of Bidder

Because the Debtor is engaged in a business which is affected with the public interest, being the research, development and clinical testing of prophylactic infection disease vaccines, including both the West Nile and Dengue Fever vaccines, all bidders must have previous management and demonstrate current expertise (including an experienced management team) in the operation of development-stage companies in the human vaccines industry. HBI wants to make sure that the successful bidder will be able to continue to carry out the on-going development and trials of both the West Nile and Dengue Fever vaccines.

To assure that the bidders are qualified prospective bidders, the Debtor will require that all bidders submit their qualifications to carry forward with the mission of HBI for the West Nile and Dengue Fever vaccines. The Debtor's staff, including the Chief Executive Officer, Dr. Elliot Parks, will work with his associates in pre-qualifying the bidders for the auction sale.

2. Due Diligence

The Debtor is selling its assets without warranties and representations. The prospective bidders will have an opportunity to conduct due diligence of the Debtor's operations. The Debtor has prepared a "Due Diligence Package" of materials, which is available via electronic data room. The first level of access concerning certain key assets is attached as Exhibit B.

To review the more confidential and proprietary information, prospective bidders will be required to sign the Confidentiality Agreement, attached as Exhibit C.

The execution of the Confidentiality Agreement will be required to have access to the information.

3. Bidding.

Minimum Deposit.

The Debtor will require a $200,000.00 refundable deposit to qualify for the in-court auction. The refundable deposit will be returned to unsuccessful bidders, but will be applied to the purchase price if a bidder is successful.

The Lender Group, as Stalking Horse Bidder, will not be required to post a pre-qualifying $200,000.00, but their DIP Loan will serve as the qualifying deposit.

Cash Payments.

The Lender Group will be allowed to credit bid up to the full amount of the DIP loans and advanced by the time of the auction. All bidders, will have to bid at least enough in cash to pay certain administrative expenses, including professional fees and all amounts necessary to assume the executory contracts previously assumed by the Debtor, as well as any other executory contracts or leases to be assumed and assigned.

Procedures.

The initial required overbid amount will be $1,630,312, be a qualified bid. The bidding will proceed in $200,000.00 increments, whether by cash or credit bid. The highest and best bid will be submitted to the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Hawaii for confirmation. If the successful bidder is unable to close timely, then the second highest bidder will be designated the “back-up bidder” and will be able to purchase the property at the “back-up bid” price.

The Lender Group has prepared and provided to the Debtor an Asset Purchase Agreement before the auction in the form attached hereto as Exhibit D. The Asset Purchase Agreement will be made available for comments to the prospective bidders and subject to minor modifications to satisfy the considerations of the Debtor and successful bidder.

III. CONCLUSION

Hawaii Biotech, Inc., requests this Court approve and authorize the sale of the assets of Hawaii Biotech, Inc., free and clear of all liens, claims, and encumbrances, subject to a credit bid by the Lender Group, on the conditions set forth herein.

The Buyer shall be deemed a Qualified Bidder without compliance with the above requirements. Only Qualified Bidders may participate at the Auction.

Auction

If more than one Qualified Bid (including the Asset Purchase Agreement) is received by the Bid Deadline, Debtor will conduct an auction (the "Auction") to determine the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid. Debtor, will determine the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid in its business judgment, after taking into account any factors Debtor deems relevant, including, without limitation, the following criteria (the “Bid Assessment Criteria”):

- (i) the amount and nature of the consideration;
- (ii) the proposed assumption of any liabilities, if any;
- (iii) the ability of the Qualified Bidder to close the proposed Transaction;
- (iv) the proposed closing date and the likelihood, extent, and impact of any potential delays in closing;
- (v) any purchase price (or similar) adjustments;
- (vi) the impact of the Transaction on any actual or potential litigation; and
- (vii) the net after-tax consideration to be received by Debtor’s estate.

If no Qualified Bid (other than the Asset Purchase Agreement) is received by the Bid Deadline, Debtor will not conduct the Auction.

The Auction shall take place at a recess during the Sale Hearing or such later time on such day or other place as Debtor shall notify all Bidders who have submitted Qualified Bids. The Auction shall be conducted according to the following procedures:

- (a) Debtor Shall Conduct the Auction.

Debtor and its professionals shall direct and preside over the Auction.

At the start of the Auction, Debtor shall describe the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement or, if a higher or otherwise better Qualified Bid is received, such Qualified Bid (the “Auction Baseline Bid”).

All Bids made thereafter shall be Overbids (as defined below), shall be made and received on an open basis, and all material terms of each Overbid shall be fully disclosed to all Bidders who have submitted Qualified Bids. The Buyer shall be permitted to credit bid the full amount of the Post-Petition Loan (including all unpaid interest, fees, costs, etc., due and owing on the date of the Auction, collectively, the “Loan Amount”), and the Expense Reimbursement as part of any Overbid in connection with each round of bidding. Debtor shall maintain a transcript of all bids made and announced at the Auction, including the Auction Baseline Bid and all Overbids.

- (b) Terms of Overbids.

An “Overbid” is any bid made at the Auction subsequent to the Debtor’s announcement of the Auction Baseline Bid. The Buyer may, but is not required to, make an Overbid. To submit an Overbid for purposes of the Auction, a Bidder must comply with the following conditions:

(i) Minimum Overbid Increment.

Any Overbid after the Auction Baseline Bid shall be made in $100,000 increments. Additional consideration in excess of the amount set forth in the Auction Baseline Bid shall include only cash, and, in the case of the Buyer, a credit bid of the Loan Amount and any Expense Reimbursement, in any combination.

(ii) Remaining Terms are the Same as for Qualified Bids.

Except as set forth in the Asset Purchase Agreement, any Overbid must remain open and binding on the Bidder until and unless Debtor accepts a higher or otherwise better Overbid and subject to the procedures with respect to Backup Bids (as described below).

To the extent not previously provided (which shall be determined by Debtor), a Bidder submitting an Overbid (other than the Buyer) must submit, as part of its Overbid, written evidence (in the form of financial disclosure or credit-quality support information or enhancement acceptable to Debtor) demonstrating such Bidder's ability to close the Competing Transaction proposed by such Overbid.

(iii) Announcing Overbids.

Debtor shall announce at the Auction the material terms of each Overbid, the basis for calculating the total consideration offered in each such Overbid, and the resulting benefit to Debtor's estate based on, among other things, the Bid Assessment Criteria.

(iv) Consideration of Overbids.

Debtor shall have the right to declare one or more adjournments in the Auction. Debtor may declare adjournments to, among other things: (1) facilitate discussions between Debtor and individual Bidders; (2) allow individual Bidders to consider how they wish to proceed; and (3) give Bidders the opportunity to provide Debtor with such additional evidence as Debtor may require that the Bidder has sufficient internal resources, or has received sufficient non-contingent debt and/or equity funding commitments, to consummate the proposed Competing Transaction at the prevailing Overbid amount.

(c) Backup Bidder.

Notwithstanding anything in the Bid Procedures to the contrary, if an Auction is conducted, the party Debtor determines to have the next highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid at the Auction shall be required to serve as a backup bidder (the "Backup Bidder"); provided, that the Buyer shall not be designated as the Backup Bidder absent the Buyer's written consent or agreement on the record. If the Buyer, but for the preceding clause, would otherwise be the Backup Bidder, the party the Debtor determines to have the next highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid at the Auction after the Buyer shall be required to serve as the Backup Bidder. The Backup Bidder shall be required to keep its initial Qualified Bid (or if the Backup Bidder submitted one or more Overbids at the Auction, its final Overbid) (the "Backup Bid") open and irrevocable until the earlier of 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Hawaii time) on the date that is forty-five (45) days after the date of the Auction (the "Outside Backup Date") or the closing of the transaction with the Successful Bidder.

Following the Sale Hearing, if the Successful Bidder fails to consummate an approved Transaction, because of a breach or failure to perform on the part of such Successful Bidder, Debtor may designate the Backup Bidder to be the new Successful Bidder, and Debtor will be authorized (but not required) to consummate the Transaction proposed in such Backup Bid without further order of the Bankruptcy Court. In such case, the defaulting Successful Bidder's deposit shall be forfeited to Debtor, and Debtor specifically reserves the right to seek all available damages from the defaulting Successful Bidder. The deposit of the Backup Bidder shall be held by Debtor until the earlier of twenty-four (24) hours after (i) the closing of the transaction with the Successful Bidder and (ii) the Outside Backup Date.

(d) Additional Procedures.

Debtor may announce at the Auction additional procedural rules (e.g., the amount of time to make subsequent Overbids) for conducting the Auction so long as the rules are not inconsistent with these Bid Procedures or the Asset Purchase Agreement.

(e) Consent to Jurisdiction as Condition to Bidding.

The Buyer and all Bidders at the Auction shall be deemed to have consented to the core jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court and waived any right to a jury trial in connection with any disputes relating to the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Auction, or the construction and enforcement of any Competing Transaction Documents.

(f) Closing the Auction.

Debtor shall continue the Auction until there is only one Qualified Bid that Debtor determines in its sole discretion is the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid at the Auction (the "Successful Bid," and the Bidder submitting such Successful Bid, the "Successful Bidder"). In making this decision, Debtor shall consider, among other things, the Bid Assessment Criteria. The Auction shall not close unless and until all Bidders who have submitted Qualified Bids have been given a reasonable opportunity, as determined by Debtor in its sole discretion to submit an Overbid at the Auction to the then-existing Overbid and the Successful Bidder has submitted fully executed transaction documents memorializing the terms of the Successful Bid.

Debtor shall not consider any bids submitted after the conclusion of the Auction.

Procedures for Determining Cure Amounts and Adequate Assurance for Counterparties to Assigned Contracts

By June __, 2010, the Debtors shall send a notice to each counterparty to an executory contract or unexpired lease (each, a "Contract Counterparty") setting forth the Debtors' calculation of the cure amount, if any, that would be owing to such counterparty if the Debtors decided to assume or assume and assign such executory contract or unexpired lease (each, a "Cure Notice"). Any Contract Counterparty that objects to the amount set forth in the Cure Notice must file an objection (a "Cure Objection"), on or before 4:00 p.m. prevailing Hawaii Time on July __, 2010, which Cure Objection must be served on (i) counsel for the Debtors, O'Connor Playdon & Guben LLP, Pacific Guardian Center – Makai Tower, 733 Bishop St. – 24th Floor, Honolulu HI 96813, Attn: Jerrold K. Guben; (ii) counsel to Buyer (a) McCorriston Miller Mukai MacKinnon LLP, Five Waterfront Plaza, 4th Floor, 500 Ala Moana Boulevard, Honolulu, Hawaii 96813, Attn: Stewart Pressman and (b) Cooley LLP, 101 California Street, 5th Floor, San Francisco, California 94111, Attn: Robert L. Eisenbach III; and (iv) counsel to any statutory committees appointed in the Debtor's chapter 11 case (collectively, the "Service Parties") so that it is actually received no later than 4:00 p.m. prevailing Hawaii Time on July __, 2010. If a Contract Counterparty does not timely file and serve a Cure Objection with respect to a Cure Notice, such Contract Counterparty will be forever barred from objecting to the cure amount proposed in such Cure Notice. If a Contract Counterparty files a timely Cure Objection and the parties are unable to consensually resolve the dispute, a hearing on such Cure Objection will be held at or prior to the Sale Hearing.

By July __, 2010, the Debtor will send a notice via overnight delivery to each counterparty (each, an "Assigned Counterparty") to a contract designated as an Assigned Contract in the Asset Purchase Agreement (a "Contract Assignment Notice"). The Contract Assignment Notice will contain (i) reasonable detail of the proposed Assigned Contract and (ii) information regarding adequate assurance of future performance by the Buyer. Any Assigned Counterparty that objects to the assignment of its Assigned Contract or to the adequate assurance of the Buyer's ability to perform must file an objection (an "Assignment Objection") on or before 4:00 p.m. prevailing Hawaii Time on July __, 2010, which Assignment Objection must be served on the Service Parties so that it is actually received no later than 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Hawaii time) on July __, 2010. If an Assigned Counterparty does not timely file and serve an Assignment Objection, such Assigned Counterparty will be (i) forever barred from objecting to the assignment of their Assigned Contracts to the Buyer; (ii) deemed to have waived all pre-closing defaults and breaches under the Assigned Contracts; (iii) forever barred from objecting to the Buyer's adequate assurance of future performance, and (iv) deemed to have consented, for all purposes, to the assumption and assignment of their Assigned Contracts to the Buyer. If an Assigned Counterparty files a timely Assignment Objection and the parties are unable to consensually resolve the dispute, a hearing on the Assignment Objection will be held at the Sale Hearing.

If the Buyer is not the Successful Bidder at the Auction, then no later than five (5) business days after the Auction, the Debtors will send a subsequent Contract Assignment Notice to each counterparty to a contract designated as an Assigned Contract by the Successful Bidder or the Backup Bidder identifying the Successful Bidder and the Backup Bidder and providing information regarding adequate assurance of future performance by the Successful Bidder and the Backup Bidder. The Sale Order will address the procedures by which the Debtors will assume and assign the Assigned Contracts to a Successful Bidder or Backup Bidder that is not the Buyer.

Nothing shall affect the rights of the Successful Bidder to add or remove executory contracts and unexpired leases from the list of Assigned Contracts prior to the Sale Hearing. The Debtors shall file a list of the Assigned Contracts to be assumed and assigned to the Successful Bidder at the Sale Hearing with the Court on or before the date of the Sale Hearing.

Sale Hearing

Debtor will seek a hearing (the "Sale Hearing") on or before July __, 2010, at which Debtor will, during a recess, conduct the Auction and, following the Auction, seek approval of the Transaction with the Successful Bidder. Any objections to the sale of the Purchased Assets to the Successful Bidder or Backup Bidder must be filed on or before 12:00 p.m. (prevailing Hawaii time) on July __, 2010, and served on the Service Parties so that they are actually received by no later than 12:00 p.m. (prevailing Hawaii time) on July __, 2010.

Return of Good Faith Deposit

The Good Faith Deposits of all Qualified Bidders shall be held in one or more interest-bearing escrow accounts by Debtor, but shall not become property of Debtor's estate absent further order of the Court. The Good Faith Deposits of any Qualified Bidder that is neither the Successful Bidder nor the Backup Bidder shall be returned to such Qualified Bidder not later than two (2) business days after the Sale Hearing. The Good Faith Deposit of the Backup Bidder shall be returned to the Backup Bidder on the date that is the earlier of twenty-four (24) hours after (i) the closing of the Transaction with the Successful Bidder, and (ii) the Outside Backup Date. Upon the return of the Good Faith Deposits, their respective owners shall receive any and all interest that will have accrued thereon. If the Successful Bidder timely closes the winning transaction, its Good Faith Deposit shall be credited towards its purchase price.

However, for the avoidance of doubt, this Agreement shall continue to cover the disclosure and use of Confidential Information during such negotiations unless and until a definitive agreement is executed.

Agreement and the remainder of the affected provision shall continue to be valid and remain enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

- 6.6 A person who is not a party to this Agreement other than an Affiliate shall have no right to enforce any of its terms. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement may be varied or terminated by agreement in writing between the parties or this Agreement may be rescinded (in each case), without the consent of any such Affiliates.

Except as otherwise required by applicable Legal Requirements, the Buyer and the Seller shall report for all Tax purposes all transactions contemplated by this Agreement in a manner consistent with the Allocation, if any, and shall not take any position inconsistent therewith in any Tax Return, in any refund claim, in any litigation or otherwise.

Section 7.8 Submission for Bankruptcy Court Approval. Within __ days of the execution of this Agreement (or as soon thereafter as is reasonably practicable but in no event later than May __, 2010), the Seller shall file a motion or motions (the "Motions") and supporting papers seeking: (i) the entry of the Bidding Procedures Order (including the scheduling of the Auction); (ii) the Bankruptcy Court's approval of this Agreement and the assumption (to the extent not already assumed by prior Bankruptcy Court order) and the assignment of the Assumed Agreements pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (iii) the entry of an order in the form of Exhibit C approving this Agreement, which order shall be a Final Order in a form and in substance reasonably acceptable to the Buyer and not subject to Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Sale Order"). The Buyer shall take such actions as are reasonably requested by the Seller to assist the Seller in obtaining a finding by the Bankruptcy Court that the Buyer is deemed to have purchased the Purchased Assets in good faith pursuant to section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code and that it has the necessary qualifications to show adequate assurance of future performance with respect to the Assumed Agreements as required by section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Bidding Procedures Order and the Sale Order may, at the Seller's option, be sought under one combined set of motion papers, which shall be in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Buyer. All parties hereto shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to have the Bankruptcy Court enter the Bidding Procedures Order within [] Business Days following the filing of the motion therefor, to have the Sale Hearing no later than [] days after the entry of the Bidding Procedures Order and to have the Sale Order entered no later than [] days after the entry of the Bidding Procedures Order. The Seller shall give notice under the Bankruptcy Code of the request for the relief specified in the Motions to any Person as to whom the Seller has received notice that such Person has or may have, and to any Person whom to the Seller's Knowledge might assert, a claim against or with respect to, or interest in, any of the Purchased Assets or Assumed Liabilities, and other appropriate notice, including such additional notice as the Bankruptcy Court shall direct or as the Buyer may reasonably request, and provide appropriate opportunity for hearing, to all parties entitled thereto, of all motions, orders, hearings, or other proceedings relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. The Seller shall be responsible for making all appropriate filings relating thereto with the Bankruptcy Court, which filings shall be submitted, to the extent practicable, to the Buyer at least two Business Days prior to their filing with the Bankruptcy Court for the Buyer's prior review and approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(a) A list of the Assumed Agreements shall be filed as an exhibit to the Sale Motion, or, if required by the Bankruptcy Court, a motion to assume and assign the Assumed Agreements, and otherwise shall be described in sufficient detail to provide adequate notice to the non-debtor party to such Contracts. Upon revision of Schedule 2.1(e) by the Buyer, the Seller shall add any Assumed Agreements to the exhibit or remove Assumed Agreements from the exhibit, as applicable. Such exhibit shall set forth the amounts necessary to cure defaults under each of such Assumed Agreements as reasonably determined in good faith by the Seller. In cases in which the Seller is unable to establish that a default exists, the relevant cure amount shall be set at $0.00.

(b) The Seller shall promptly provide the Buyer and its counsel with copies of all notices, filings and orders of the Bankruptcy Court (and other courts) that the Seller has in its possession (or receives) pertaining to the motion for approval of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Sale Order or any other order related to any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, but only to the extent such papers are not publicly available on the Bankruptcy Court's docket.

(c) If the Bidding Procedures Order, the Sale Order or any other orders of the Bankruptcy Court relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby shall be appealed by any Person (or if any petition for certiorari or motion for reconsideration, amendment, clarification, modification, vacation, stay, rehearing or reargument shall be filed with respect to the Bidding Procedures Order, Sale Order or other such order), subject to rights otherwise arising from this Agreement, the Seller shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to oppose such appeal, petition or motion and obtain an expedited resolution of any such appeal, petition or motion, in close consultation with the Buyer.

Section 7.9 Overbid Procedures. The Buyer and the Seller acknowledge that the Seller must take reasonable steps to demonstrate that it has sought to obtain the highest or otherwise best price for the Purchased Assets, including giving notice thereof to the creditors of the Seller and other interested parties, providing information about the Seller's business to prospective bidders (subject to confidentiality agreements no less restrictive than the Confidentiality Agreement), entertaining higher and better offers from such prospective bidders, and, in the event that additional qualified prospective bidders desire to bid for the Purchased Assets, conducting an auction (the "Auction"). The Seller and the Buyer agree, and the motion to approve the Bidding Procedures Order shall reflect the fact that the provisions of this Agreement, including this Section 7.9 and Section 7.10, are reasonable, were a material inducement to the Buyer to enter into this Agreement and are designed to achieve the highest and best price for the Purchased Assets.

Section 7.10 Expense Reimbursement. If: (a) (i) the Buyer is not identified as the successful bidder following completion of the actions contemplated by Section 7.9; (ii) at the time the successful bidder is identified, the Buyer is not in material breach of any material provision of this Agreement; (iii) the Buyer has not terminated this Agreement (other than pursuant to Sections 9.1(c), 9.1(e), 9.1(f), or 9.1(i)); and (iv) a sale of all or a material part of the Purchased Assets to a party or parties (collectively, a "Third-Party") other than the Buyer (the "Third-Party Sale") is consummated; (b) (i) a Third-Party Sale is consummated (whether in the Chapter 11 Case or, if converted into a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, such Chapter 7 case) within six months of the approval of the Bidding Procedures Order; (ii) at the time of the Third-Party Sale, the Buyer is not in material breach of any material provision of this Agreement; and (iii) the Buyer has not terminated this Agreement (other than pursuant to Sections 9.1(c), 9.1(e), 9.1(f), 9.1(h) or 9.1(i)); or (c) the Seller files a Chapter 11 plan contemplating the sale or retention of a material portion of the Purchased Assets by the Seller in a manner substantially inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement (an "Inconsistent Plan"), then the Buyer will be entitled to receive, without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, from the Seller, or, in the event of a Third-Party Sale, out of the deposit from such Third-Party and the proceeds of the consummated sale: the amount of all of the Buyer's documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with its evaluation, consideration and negotiation of a possible transaction contemplated hereby, in any case up to $75,000 (the "Expense Reimbursement"). Such Expense Reimbursement shall be made by wire transfer of immediately available U.S. funds to an account designated by the Buyer from the Seller or, in the event of a Third-Party Sale, from the Seller, the deposit from such Third-Party and the proceeds of a Third-Party Sale, with such payment to be made on or before the first Business Day after the consummation of the Third-Party Sale or the filing of an Inconsistent Plan, as applicable. The claim of the Buyer in respect thereof shall constitute a super-priority administrative expense claim, senior to all other administrative expense claims of the Seller, as administrative expenses under sections 503 and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in the Chapter 11 Case, paid, in cash, from the deposit and/or the sale proceeds generated by the sale or sales of the Purchased Assets paid by a Third-Party Sale and paid to the Buyer, in cash. As part of any motion seeking entry of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Seller shall seek approval by the Bankruptcy Court of this Section 7.10 (and that the substance of this Section 7.10 be in the Bid Procedures Order), which may be approved by the Bankruptcy Court separately from the remainder of this Agreement.

Section 7.11 Transfer of Purchased Assets.

(a) The Seller and the Buyer agree that unless otherwise requested by the Buyer in writing, any of the Purchased Assets (including software) that can be transmitted to the Buyer electronically will be so delivered to the Buyer promptly following the Closing and will not be delivered to the Buyer on any tangible medium. Promptly following any electronic transmission, the Seller shall execute and deliver to the Buyer a certificate in a form reasonably acceptable to the Buyer and containing, at a minimum, the following information: (i) the date of transmission; (ii) the time the transmission was commenced and concluded; (iii) the name of the individual who made the transmission; (iv) the signature of such individual; and (v) a general description of the nature of the items transmitted sufficient to distinguish the transmission from other transmissions.

(b) The Buyer will make all necessary arrangements for the Buyer to take possession of the Purchased Assets, and, at the Buyer's expense, to transfer same to a location operated by the Buyer as promptly as practicable following the Closing.

(c) After the Closing, if the Seller receives any payment, refund or other amount which is a Purchased Asset or which is otherwise properly due and owing to the Buyer, the Seller shall promptly remit, or shall cause to be remitted, such amount to the Buyer. The Seller shall promptly endorse and deliver to the Buyer any notes, checks, negotiable instruments or other documents which are Purchased Assets or otherwise properly due and owing to the Buyer, and the Buyer shall have the right and authority to endorse, without recourse, the name of the Seller on any such instrument or document.

Section 7.12 Post-Closing Operation of the Seller; Name Changes. From and after the Closing, the Seller will cease all operations that are in any manner competitive with the Business being transferred to the Buyer hereunder. Nothing contained herein shall preclude the Seller from conducting any non-competitive business activities, selling Excluded Assets or enforcing its rights and performing its obligations under this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents. Promptly after the Closing, the Seller shall take all necessary action to change its name to a name bearing no resemblance to Hawaii Biotech, Inc. and will file such documents as are necessary to reflect such name change in the states in which the Seller is incorporated and the other jurisdictions where the Seller is qualified to do business as a foreign entity and filing an application with and obtaining an order from the Bankruptcy Court requiring a change to the caption of all pleadings and documents to be filed in the Chapter 11 Case from Hawaii Biotech, Inc. to a name bearing no resemblance to Hawaii Biotech, Inc. The Seller agrees to promptly notify the Buyer of such name change and the name chosen by the Seller. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Seller may refer to Hawaii Biotech, Inc. as a former name for legal and noticing purposes in the Chapter 11 Case and other legal documents.

ARTICLE VIII CONDITIONS TO CLOSING

(c) the Buyer shall have received a certificate from an authorized officer of the Seller, dated as of the Closing Date, to the effect that, to such officer's knowledge, the conditions set forth in Sections 8.2(a), 8.2(b), and 8.2(f) have been satisfied;

(d) the Purchased Assets shall be able to be delivered free and clear of any Encumbrances other than Permitted Encumbrances;

(e) the Buyer shall have received the other items to be delivered to it pursuant to Section 4.2; and

(f) since the date of this Agreement, there shall have not have occurred any Material Adverse Effect, and no events, developments or effects shall have occurred (and no circumstances or conditions shall exist) that would reasonably be expected to have or result in a Material Adverse Effect.

Any condition specified in this Section 8.2 may be waived by the Buyer; provided that no such waiver shall be effective against the Buyer unless it is set forth in a writing executed by the Buyer.

Section 8.3 Conditions to Obligations of the Seller. The obligation of the Seller to effect the sale of the Purchased Assets contemplated by this Agreement shall be subject to the fulfillment at or prior to the Closing of the following additional conditions:

(a) the Buyer shall have performed and complied in all material respects with the covenants contained in this Agreement which are required to be performed and complied with by the Buyer on or prior to the Closing Date and the representations and warranties of the Buyer which are set forth in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made at and as of the Closing Date (except to the extent that any such representation or warranty speaks as of a particular date in which case such representation or warranty shall be true and correct in all material respects as of such date);

(b) the Seller shall have received a certificate from an authorized officer of the Buyer, dated as of the Closing Date, to the effect that, to such officer's knowledge, the conditions set forth in Section 8.3(a) have been satisfied; and

(c) the Seller shall have received the other items to be delivered to it pursuant to Section 4.3.

Any condition specified in this Section 8.3 may be waived by the Seller; provided that no such waiver shall be effective against the Seller unless it is set forth in a writing executed by the Seller.

ARTICLE IX TERMINATION AND ABANDONMENT

Section 9.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Closing by:

(a) mutual written consent of the Seller and the Buyer;

(b) the Seller if: (i) any of the Buyer's representations and warranties contained in this Agreement shall be inaccurate as of the date of this Agreement, or shall have become inaccurate as of a date subsequent to the date of this Agreement (as if made on and as of such subsequent date), such that the condition set forth in Section 8.3(a) would not be satisfied; or (ii) any of the Buyer's covenants or obligations contained in this Agreement shall have been breached such that the condition set forth in Section 8.3(a) would not be satisfied; provided, however, that if an inaccuracy in any of the Buyer's representations and warranties or a breach of a covenant or obligation by the Buyer is curable by the Buyer within ten Business Days after the date of written notice from the Seller to the Buyer of the occurrence of such inaccuracy or breach, then the Seller may not terminate this Agreement under this Section 9.1(b) on account of such inaccuracy or breach: (A) during the ten Business Day period commencing on the date on which the Buyer receives notice of such inaccuracy or breach; or (B) after such ten Business Day period if such inaccuracy or breach shall have been fully cured during such period in a manner that does not result in a material breach of any covenant or obligation of the Buyer;

(c) the Buyer if: (i) any of the Seller's representations and warranties contained in this Agreement shall be inaccurate as of the date of this Agreement, or shall have become inaccurate as of a date subsequent to the date of this Agreement (as if made on and as of such subsequent date), such that the condition set forth in Section 8.2(b) would not be satisfied (it being understood that, in determining the accuracy of the representations and warranties referred to in Section 8.2(b) as of the date of this Agreement or as of any subsequent date for purposes of this Section 9.1(c), all materiality qualifications that are contained in such representations and warranties and that limit the scope of such representations and warranties shall be disregarded); or (ii) any of the Seller's covenants or obligations contained in this Agreement shall have been breached such that the condition set forth in Section 8.2(a) would not be satisfied; provided, however, that if an inaccuracy in any of the Seller's representations and warranties or a breach of a covenant or obligation by any of the Seller is curable by it within ten Business Days after the date of written notice from the Buyer to the Seller of the occurrence of such inaccuracy or breach, then the Buyer may not terminate this Agreement under this Section 9.1(c) on account of such inaccuracy or breach: (A) during the ten Business Day period commencing on the date on which the Seller receives notice of such inaccuracy or breach; or (B) after such ten Business Day period if such inaccuracy or breach shall have been fully cured during such period in a manner that does not result in a material breach of any covenant or obligation of the Seller;

(d) the Seller or the Buyer, if: (i) there shall be any Legal Requirement (other than a Legal Requirement the violation of which could not reasonably be expected to result in: (A) criminal liability; or (B) fines or penalties in excess of $100,000) that makes consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby illegal or otherwise prohibited; or (ii) consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby would violate any nonappealable final order, decree or judgment of the Bankruptcy Court or any court or Governmental Authority having competent jurisdiction; provided that the party seeking to terminate pursuant to this Section 9.1(d) shall have used its reasonable best efforts to challenge such Legal Requirement, order, decree or judgment;

(e) the Buyer or the Seller, if the Bankruptcy Court enters an order approving a Third-Party Sale;

(f) the Buyer, at any time on or after July __, 2010, if the Sale Order has not been entered by the Bankruptcy Court on the docket of the Bankruptcy Case; provided that the Buyer shall not be entitled to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.1(f) if the breach by the Buyer of any representation, warranty or covenant contained in this Agreement is a proximate cause of the failure of the Sale Order to be entered by such date; or

(g) the Seller, on or after July __, 2010, if the Sale Order has not been entered by the Bankruptcy Court on the docket of the Bankruptcy Case; provided, that the Seller shall not be entitled to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.1(g) if its own breach of any representation, warranty or covenant contained in this Agreement is a proximate cause of the failure of the Sale Order to be entered by such date;

(h) the Buyer, if the Closing shall not have occurred on or prior to the date fifteen Business Days following the date the Sale Order is entered by the Bankruptcy Court, or the Seller, if the Closing shall not have occurred on or prior to the date twenty Business Days following the date the Sale Order is entered by the Bankruptcy Court; provided, that the Buyer or the Seller, as the case may be, shall not be entitled to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 9.1(h) if its own breach of any representation, warranty or covenant contained in this Agreement is a proximate cause of the failure of the Closing to occur on or prior to such date; or

(i) the Buyer, if an Event of Default (as defined in the Post-Petition Loan) occurs under the Post-Petition Loan.

Section 9.2 Procedure and Effect of Termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement and abandonment of the transactions contemplated hereby pursuant to Section 9.1, written notice thereof shall forthwith be given by the terminating party to the other party and this Agreement shall terminate and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be abandoned, without further action by any of the parties hereto provided, however, that: (a) no party shall be relieved of any Liability arising from any intentional breach by such party of any provision of this Agreement; and (b) Section 7.10 and Article X shall not be affected by the termination hereof.

Section 9.3 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Closing, the Seller, on the one hand, or the Buyer, on the other hand, may: (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or acts of the Buyer (in the case of an agreed extension by the Seller) or the Seller (in the case of an agreed extension by the Buyer); (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the Buyer (in the case of a wavier by the Seller) or the Seller (in the case of a waiver by the Buyer) contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto; (c) waive compliance with any of the agreements of the Buyer (in the case of a wavier by the Seller) or the Seller (in the case of a waiver by the Buyer) contained herein; or (d) waive any condition to its obligations hereunder. Any agreement on the part of the Seller, on the one hand, or the Buyer, on the other hand, to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of the Seller or the Buyer, as applicable.

ARTICLE X MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 10.2 Waiver of Compliance; Consents. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any failure of any of the parties to comply with any obligation, covenant or condition herein may be waived by the party or parties entitled to the benefits thereof only by a written instrument signed by the party or parties granting such waiver, but such waiver or failure to insist upon strict compliance with such obligation, covenant, or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to any subsequent or other failure.

Any assignment of this Agreement or any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder in contravention of this Section 10.5 shall be null and void and shall not bind or be recognized by the Seller or the Buyer.

Section 10.6 Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule of law or public policy, all other terms, conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Each party hereby irrevocably agrees that all claims in respect of such dispute or proceedings may be heard and determined in such courts. The parties hereby irrevocably waive, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any objection which they may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any such dispute or proceeding brought in such courts or any defense of inconvenient forum in connection therewith.

Section 10.9 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed and delivered (including by facsimile transmission) in one or more counterparts, and by the different parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which, when executed and delivered, shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement. Facsimile and electronically transmitted signatures shall be deemed to be, and shall be legally effective as, original signatures for all purposes of this Agreement.

Section 10.10 Incorporation of Schedules and Exhibits. All Schedules and all Exhibits attached hereto and referred to herein are hereby incorporated herein by reference and made a part of this Agreement for all purposes as if fully set forth herein.

Section 10.11 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including all Schedules and all Exhibits), the Transaction Documents, and the Confidentiality Agreement constitute the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements and understandings, written and oral, among the parties with respect thereto.

Section 10.12 Remedies. The parties hereby acknowledge and agree that money damages may not be an adequate remedy for any breach or threatened breach of any of the provisions of this Agreement and that, in such event, each party or its respective successors or assigns may, in addition to any other rights and remedies existing in their favor, apply to the Bankruptcy Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction for specific performance, injunctive and/or other relief in order to enforce or prevent any violations of this Agreement.
